What is Evangelization

“Evangelization means bringing the Good News of Jesus into every human situation and seeking to convert individuals and society by the divine power of the Gospel itself. At its essence are the proclamation of salvation in Jesus Christ and the response of a person in faith, which are both works of the Spirit of God. It must always be directly connected to the Lord Jesus Christ. “There is no true evangelization if the name, the teaching, the life, the promises, the Kingdom and the mystery of Jesus of Nazareth, the Son of God are not proclaimed” (Evangelii Nuntiandi, 22).

“Pope John Paul II, in his encyclical on missionary activity, summed up the three objectives of mission:

- To proclaim the Gospel to all people
- To help bring about the reconversion of those who have received the Gospel but live it only nominally
- To deepen the Gospel in the lives of believers”

“We use the word ‘evangelization’ because its root meaning is ‘Gospel’ (Good News) and because it calls us, even if it is uncomfortable, to live the faith of our baptism more openly and to share it more freely.”

“Evangelization has different implications depending on our relationship to Jesus and his Church. For those of us who practice and live our Catholic faith, it is a call to ongoing growth and renewed conversion. For those who have accepted it only in name, it is a call to re-evangelization. For those who have stopped practicing their faith, it is a call to reconciliation. For children, it is a call to be formed into disciples through the family's faith life and religious education. For other Christians, it is an invitation to know the fullness of our message. For those who have no faith, it is a call to conversion to know Christ Jesus and thus experience a change to new life with Christ and his Church.”

The New Evangelization

“The New Evangelization calls each of us to deepen our faith, believe in the Gospel message and go forth to proclaim the Gospel. The focus of the New Evangelization calls all Catholics to be evangelized and then go forth to evangelize. In a special way, the New Evangelization is focused on re-proposing the Gospel to those who have experienced a crisis of faith. Pope Benedict XVI called for the re-proposing of the Gospel "to those regions awaiting the first evangelization and to those regions where the roots of Christianity are deep but who have experienced a serious crisis of faith due to secularization."

“The message of Jesus Christ needs to be re-sown and watered for those who have already heard Christ's call, but who have not been fully evangelized or catechized.”

The Process of Evangelization

The process of evangelization is like setting a bonfire ablaze. It begins with preparatory work, moves into the ignition of the elements, entails stoking and feeding these elements to maintain the fire and lastly, allows and encourages the fire to blaze forth within proper parameters.

IGNITE

Phase 1

Pre-Evangelization: Prepare the Fire

Prepare hearts for the reception of the Gospel message

Phase 2

Proclamation: Ignite the Fire

Proclaim the Good News of Salvation through Jesus Christ

Phase 3

Discipleship: Stoke the fire

Form conscious followers and students of Jesus Christ

Phase 4

Apostleship: Let the fire blaze

Send out mature disciples to "GO" and proclaim the Gospel

Phase 1: Pre-Evangelization

The preparation of hearts for the reception of the Gospel message is needed in many cases before a person can respond to the call to commit or recommit him or herself to Christ and His Church. The following resources can help stir up faith and thus are appropriate for the initial stage of evangelization.

This series explains how faith is not irrational but the most reasonable response possible to God's amazing deeds. "I Believe" follows the outline of the Nicene Creed, but don't be mistaken--it is far from a stuffy, academic presentation of the basic beliefs of Roman Catholicism! Full of enlightening metaphors and colorful anecdotes, "I Believe" leads its audience not only to a clearer understanding of the articles of faith Roman Catholics profess, but a deeper love relationship with God the Father, Son, and Spirit.

Dogmatic Theology: Coming to Know God Through Man's Best Friend

What do you get if you spell "God" backwards? Man's best friend. Add a Catholic priest, a theologian, eight weeks of dogma and you get Dogmatic Theology, a dynamic eight-part DVD chock-full of humour, insight and theological consideration. Based upon Fr. James Mallon's many experiences with his shepherd mix dog, this course explores themes central to the Christian faith. Each theme is then illuminated by a documentary testimony and a teaching by Dogmatic Theologian, Dr. David Deane.

Phase 2: Proclamation

St. Paul tells us that the grace of faith comes through hearing the Word of Christ (Rom. 10:17). Hence, proclamation of the message of Christ, (the kerygma in Greek), is the essential component for igniting the fire of faith in a soul. There is no true evangelization without the simple, direct and integral announcement of the Good News of Jesus Christ to an individual, that is, the meaning of His Life, Death and Resurrection for them. This “initial and ardent proclamation” should “overwhelm the person and bring him to the decision to entrust himself to Jesus Christ by faith” (CT, 25).

Cursillo

Cursillo International

Length: 4 days

Metuchen Cursillo Movement

Visit www.metcursillo.org for more info or contact Dr. Anthony A. Tangorra at 908-766-1900 | drtangorra@yahoo.com

Phase 3: Discipleship

Once a commitment or recommitment of one's life has been made, the third phase begins. Disciples are conscious followers and students of the Lord Jesus Christ. They have a living, personal relationship with Him and require extensive formation in the Faith. This formation is to be at once systematic and integral and its goal is complete transformation of life. The fire that was ignited in the second stage will smolder and wither if it is not stoked by sound spiritual, intellectual, moral and communal teaching and mentoring. Jesus spent three years forming/discipling 12 men and then commissioned them to evangelize the world.

Office of Evangelization

Length: varies

The Office of Evangelization offers Inactive Catholic Outreach and Home Visitation Training to parishes interested in reaching out to inactive members and non-Catholics. The training consists of a teaching segment as well as a practicum. Home Visitation can be a powerful means of evangelization when it is properly done and when a well planned follow-up strategy is in place. Ideally every parish should develop some form of home visitation and outreach as part of its overall evangelization efforts.
